

Instrumental Music

During the fourth grade school year, students have the chance to experience the Exploratory Music Program. This program provides the children with hands-on experience using representative instruments of the Woodwind, Brass, String, and Percussion families. The students use the clarinet, trumpet, and violin to explore sound production and its qualities. The Homemade Instrument is a fun project in which the students get a chance to use their creativity to demonstrate an understanding of sound production.

Mrs. Few

Instrumental Music

