

Building Bridges

On Wednesday, September 9, Blue Sky Puppet Theater visited the students of Winfield Elementary. The children enjoyed a wonderful puppet show that taught them about the valuable skill of "Building Bridges" to solve problems. The children were actively involved through songs and actions. When asked how they enjoyed the show, one first grader said "it was fun to see how they worked together and became friends." While another commented that he liked singing the song and doing the actions. The boys and girls of Winfield look forward to future shows by Blue Sky Puppet Theater.
