

Milford Mill Academy

3800 Washington Avenue, Baltimore, MD 21244

Phone (410) 887 -0660

SUMMER READING ENRICHMENT

2009

Dear Parents and Students,

All students are expected to participate in our summer enrichment program. All of the books can be accessed at public, school, or college libraries, as well as purchased online or at local book stores.

DIRECTIONS FOR STUDENTS:

- A. All students will read two books- Crunch Time by Mariah Fredericks and the book for the grade that they will be September 2009. (see below)
- B. For your respective grade level reading: Make a dialectical journal using 20 quotes TOTAL (5 each for the following)- characterization, setting, plot development, and theme. – (see example below)
- C. For the novel Crunch Time, write a one page essay in which you agree or disagree with the quote: “A high score on the SATs represents intelligence.”
- D. This assignment will be collected at the end of the first week of the school year by your English teacher and will count as a test grade for the first quarter grades.

Grade 9	To Kill a Mockingbird (Stand/Hon/GT)	Harper Lee
Grade 10	Night (stand/Hon/GT/PreIB)	Elie Wiesel
Grade 11	The Catcher in the Rye (Stand/Hon) The Stranger (IB11) The Color of Water (AP11)	J.D. Salinger Albert Camus James McBride
Grade 12	Jane Eyre (Stand) Maus I and Maus II (AP12) Much Ado About Nothing (IB 12)	Charlotte Bronte Art Spiegelman William Shakespeare

EXAMPLE OF SETTING UP A DIALECTICAL JOURNAL

Citation (anything taken from the book word for word)	Page number	Why do I find the citation interesting or important?

If you have any questions about this assignment, please email me at dpowell2@bcps.org or the respective team leaders:

9th grade- bnorton@bcps.org
10th grade- tlong@bcps.org
11th grade - mlewis5@bcps.org
12th grade- lburkley@bcps.org

Sincerely,
Donna Powell, English Department Chairperson

Nathaniel Gibson, II, Principal

